In 1996, writer Jeph Loeb and artist Tim Sale teamed up for Batman: The Long Halloween, an award-winning 13-chapter saga that spawned multiple sequels and stands as the most influential Batman story of its era. Now, Loeb returns to the world of The Long Halloween for its long-anticipated final act: Batman: The Last Halloween, an all-new 10-part mystery continuing the story from 2021's The Long Halloween Special. In each issue, Loeb will be joined by one of the top artists in comics, in a beautiful and lovingly crafted tribute to Sale's art and legacy.

In issue one, Gotham City learns to fear Halloween once more as a terrible event threatens to destroy Jim Gordon's life and puts Batman and Robin's teamwork to the test more than ever before. In a city of liars, masked vigilantes, and criminals...can anyone be trusted?

It's the story of three good men who made a pact to uphold justice; of a young hero tempted by the dark flirtations of a certain Feline Fatale; of a mysterious serial murderer who kills according to the calendar; of trust betrayed...and of friendship doomed. Featuring Catwoman, Harvey Dent/Two-Face, The Joker, Poison Ivy, The Riddler — any one of whom may prove to be the mysterious killer known as "Holiday".

It's not exactly glamorous, but it's better than the dangers of tangling with real magic.

Yet while Zatanna might think she's done with magic, it's certainly not done with her. And when a malevolent demon bursts through her stage mid-act, throwing her world into chaos with the promise of more hell to follow, she'll have to dig deep into the fractured memories of her past if she hopes to summon the power to survive what's coming. Because despite Zatanna's best efforts, your past has a way of coming back to kill you...This volume collects Zatanna: Bring Down the House #1-5.
